

LOWNDESVILLE.

Lowndesville, July 16.—One of the prettiest mid-summer entertainments was the reception given on last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. John W. McCalla in honor of her charming guest, Miss Gladys Jackson, of Gaffney. The stately old colonial home, surrounded by majestic oaks, was brilliant with electric lights and gay with flowers for this festive occasion.

During the afternoon and evening about forty ladies from the town and surrounding community called to enjoy the hospitality of this splendid country home. The guests were met by Miss Cornelia Tennent and presented to the lovely honoree by the hostess in her sweet gracious manner. The reception hall, parlor and dining room were thrown into one, and artistically decorated with pink asters and trailing ivy. The color scheme, pink and white, was especially noticeable in the dining-room, and was beautifully carried out in the refreshments, which consisted of angel cake, cream and mints. Those assisting the hostess in the dining room were, Mrs. Leona Clinkscales, Misses Ellen Tennent, Pauline Clinkscales and Julia Bell. In a bower decorated with flowers and trailing vines, the punch bowl was presided over by Misses Louise Bell and Annie Nickels.

Miss Jackson is one of Gaffney's prettiest and most popular young ladies and by her genial manner and attractive personality has made many warm friends during her visit to Mrs. McCalla.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is soft pink and healthy and never sore tender or irritated—Adv.
